2024 Disc Golf Adventure VIII

1/25-1/28 New Smyrna Beach FL

After four years, I'm so excited to say, "The Adventure is back." Planning has started: Greg #1 + one, Bob #2 + one, Rob #3, Mark #4 + one, Arnie #23 + one, Stuart #71, Peter #72, Chris #18 + one, Erik #27, Al #24, Carolyn #26, Loren #68, and Brent #42. BillW #47, Ed #66 are already committed. If you are interested, please let me know whether you are in, "committed", a "maybe," or a "not sure," but keep me in the loop.

What is the adventure?

We get out to new areas to play lots of disc golf at several courses and at least 50 holes a day.

Who is eligible?

Note: due to multiple requests, the eligibility clause has been updated!!

Any official card-carrying dude in good standing. The eligibility requirement may be waived if a member in good standing vouches for and accepts all responsibility for a non-member.

We will be staying in New Smyrna Beach Thursday–Sunday (1/25-28/2024.) It's probably best to fly into Orlando, which is about 50 minutes from New Smyrna Beach. On past adventures we have prepared group breakfasts, packed lunches, prepared dinners with the grocery bills split, or gone out to local restaurants. We have rented a van to get around. Every time it's been a good time.

Please answer the three questions below and email to DiscnDudes@Gmail.com with “Adventure” in the subject.

The three questions:

- 1. What nights will you be staying, Thursday, Friday, and/or Saturday?*
- 2. Do you want to book your own room or be included in the rental house if space is available?*
- 3. Are you willing to share a room? Yes or No?*

Accommodations: Disclaimer I know as much as you about these properties if you look at the links.

I have booked lodging 1 link here The two rental houses are full. The third house link here on the property is rented. There are 3 or 4 additional beds available. If you want to claim one of the beds, it is first-come, first-served. Or you can book your own. The sooner the better. I will keep posting info about available accommodations when it becomes available.

There is also an All Suite motel nearby with 2 beds and a kitchen in each room. <https://all-suitemotel.com> I’m sure they are spartan. We have stayed in some shitholes in the past and it was fine, but these look ok.

Transportation:

Please let me know when you have booked airfare.

1. I recommend flying into Orlando which is about ~50 minutes from New Smyrna Beach. Sun Country has reasonable fares.
2. My suggestion is Thursday AM arrival, and coordinate car rental with other dudes, i.e., Sun Country flight sy341 or sy343.

3. I also suggest a Sunday PM departure i.e., Sun Country flight sy340. We might be able to get in one last round before leaving. There is also a really fun course just north of Orlando airport if you have to kill some time.

Please let me know if you have any questions or other issues not addressed here. I will update this document periodically, so please save this link.
